17. ABSTRACT (MAX. 250 WORDS)

The names of four foods - corn, milk, bread, and ham - are introduced by linking them with pictures. A new article, "this," is introduced. Discrimination is drawn between "this" and "the." A sequence teaches the diagraph "th." The article "a" and the verb "are" are introduced. The student underlines new words, and the responses are strengthened through practice in silent reading.
